Prophet Jose Vargas:

There's a shift, there's a shift, there's a shift Pastor. There's a shift happening. There's a shift, there's a shift, there's a shift. Change is good, change is good. It doesn't always feel good but it's good. Change is good. I sense a shifting happening in the atmosphere. God is getting ready to do something fresh here at the Good Shepherd. God is getting ready to do something fresh, something fresh, something fresh.

I hear the Spirit of the Lord say this, "As Abraham dug wells and the Philistines kept filling them up it took his son to go back and re-dig some old wells". This is the season of re-digging some old wells. There's still some Pentecostal fire on the inside of you. There's still some Pentecostal fire on the inside of you guys, come on God. You're getting ready to re-dig some stuff. You're getting ready to go into some re-digging season where you're gonna re-dig some stuff of old and God is getting ready to keep you because you know. See Isaac knew exactly where the wells were. He knew exactly where the blessing was. He knew and he said if I go back to where my daddy dug up, If I go back to where he dug and I know the philistines are coming up but I know where it's at. God says this is the next season as you go back and you begin to re-dig these wells, I'm getting ready to pour out my blessing like never before upon this church. I am getting ready to pour out my blessing like never before upon the two of you, watch this, but the building that I have already in store for you guys, it is not gonna be hard, it is not gonna be hard. God says I am getting ready to make it happen for you in this next season. What the enemy thought he had destroyed, what the enemy thought he took away, watch what God said, "I'm getting ready to give you double for your trouble. I'm getting ready to give you more than enough". This is your season of more than enough. Get ready for what God is getting ready to do in this next season says the Spirit of Grace. Come on if you believe it, somebody shout out unto God with the voice of triumph.

Prophetess Angela Vargas

I want to tell you you're gonna get a building, you're gonna get a building. In this season, God was doing separating some things because where you're going next you need to be strengthened and you had to be tried. The Lord said I'm about to strengthen the body. I'm about to strengthen my people. The Lord said I will give you a place to go and worship of your own. The Lord says it seems like things have been taken away, it seems like it's been a season of discouragement, it seems like you felt some loss, but the Lord said you're about to gain it all. The Lord said this is recovery season for this church. He said many walked out and they left but the Lord said many will come and return. He said get ready to welcome them. It's like the prodigal son return to his father's house and He said there will be a party waiting for them. The Lord said get ready I'm about to cause a party to happen in this place. He said those of you that are standing and waiting he said you're gonna see my hand of strength come upon this place. You will see my hand of provision come on this place. I saw in the realm of the Spirit there was some finances that started to dwindle down. I saw finances begin to dry up in this place. I saw in the realm of the spirit that there were some people that you thought were supposed to be here, but they left. There were people that moved on in the heavenly realm with God. And the Lord says son I come to strengthen my church, my bride, you belong to me. And the Lord said I come to strengthen you today. I come to give this church wholeness and I'm about to give you your shout back.

I'm about to give your bravery back. I'm about to give you courage to take this city again. I'm about to give you courage to believe for a building. This is not your building. God is about to give you your own. He's about to give you your own. So Father I pray that you will locate the building. I pray that you will locate the building where you want them to go. Lord, you said you will order our steps in the way we should go. Order The Good Shepherd's steps. Father for the fruit will remain. Lord you were causing the fruit to fall off the vine that was dried up but Lord there's fresh fruit that are growing and there's fruits that's gonna remain. This church, I just felt the Lord lifting off burdens. I just felt that the Lord is lifting off disappointment. I could hear in the realm of the spirit "what is going on at The Good Shepherd"? Could I tell you what's going on. Jesus is still Lord! Could I tell you that He's still moving and He's still healing. He's still delivering that's what's going on at The Good Shepherd. But I hear in the realm of the spirit there's a complaint. The Lord said I'm a God without complaining. I'm a God that without complaining. I'm telling you you're gonna get a new building. When you walk into these doors, people are gonna come new into the service, fresh. And the Lord said you need to begin to have a party. You need to begin to have a fiesta. You need to begin to invite them in and begin to rejoice because I'm telling you the goodness of God is about to rest. I know, I know that I know that the timing for us to come to release something to you is because what God is doing is bringing the body into togetherness, into wholeness and when God do that, He brings everything in order because there were some things out of order. Your finances, that was drying up in this place, no longer are they gonna dry up. Your about to bloom in this season. The tree that was dead is about to grow again. That tree that was dead is about to grow again. What was dead is about to grow again. I call it forth in the realm of the spirit. That what was dead is about to grow again.

The Lord said don't sit in your rocking chair and cry and worry no more. Your chair has been you're place of comfort, but the Lord says son it is about to grow again. You've been doing everything you can think of to get yourself in motion. You've been trying to lose weight, you've been trying to go on a fast, you've been doing everything you can think of and the Lords says stop worrying. I cover you by the blood and I put my wings of angels around and I cover your mind from the disruption of your reading of your word and your time with me. I come against the very works of the enemy that cause distraction to you. I pray that your message comes fresh and anointed by my hand. The Lord says son fresh messages about to come to you. The Lord said worry will be behind you it would not be in front of you. Worrying about what the church is doing and the finances and what's going on, the Lord says I'm going to bring wealth to you in this season. I'm going to bring wealth to you because you stood in front of adversity. You stood when your church got burnt up and you said Lord I will still go on and I will still run. I still would do your call in your will and He said I'm making a way for you. I'm making a way for you.

lift your hands, Sharon. The season of weakness is over. You've been the strength to this place, you've been the strength to your husband. There are many things you just don't understand and you're like "God I still remain faithful because I know you're doing something". And the Lord says faithfulness moves me, it moves me. It causes me to get up and move mightily. The Lord said I'm gonna show you the building. I'm gonna show it to you. He said you would know the floor plan and you would know how to get the money, oh they're gonna give you the money. The Lord says wealth is inside of you woman of God. He said that you're going to take the pastor mantle off and step into the realtor.

You're gonna walk in and say, "that's my building" and the Lord said call it forth cause I will give you the keys to unlock the door.

He said call it forth I will give you the keys to unlock the door. He said you shall walk in with a new vision; you shall walk into a new season, and he said you will cause women to rise up into a place where they will begin to preach the gospel. You will begin to gird them. You will begin to give them the word and you will tell them be faithful because he was faithful, be faithful because he was faithful. The Lord said you'll see. I saw you sowing seed into this house for things to go forth from your own personal because you didn't want the house of God to be in lack. You said, "I bless you". You're gonna be buying houses, you're gonna be selling them too. You're gonna make some money, money, money. I'm telling you you're gonna have to have a large amount for this next building, but God said I'm gonna give you the finances in your hand. You guys rejoice because you're gonna move out of here into you're on building. You see how this big, you guys gonna double in size. You're gonna double in size get ready for the next move. Hallelujah Jesus.
